

Brighton & Hove Refugee Week Co-ordinator

Freelance position for immediate start

Contract value: £15/hour (maximum 100 hours)

Refugee Week takes place 20th - 26th June 2016 and aims to facilitate positive encounters between refugees and the wider community, to encourage greater understanding and explore new and creative ways of addressing relevant issues.

Working in partnership with others (including the Community University Partnership Programme at the University of Brighton), we are recruiting a temporary co-ordinator to bring together a range of activities for Refugees Week.

We are looking for someone with experience of co-ordinating events, partnerships and volunteers and of working with people from different ethnic, linguistic and cultural backgrounds. You will be passionate about supporting refugees and asylum seekers in Brighton and Hove.

The Co-ordinator will be contracted by Community Works on behalf of Sanctuary on Sea and its partners. Sanctuary on Sea is the Brighton & Hove group which is part of the wider Cities of Sanctuary movement.

The job description and further information is available from the Sanctuary on Sea website:

<https://brighton-and-hove.cityofsanctuary.org/>

To apply, please submit your CV and covering letter setting out how you will meet the project brief to: brightonandhove@cityofsanctuary.org

If you have any questions about this role or if you require this information in a different format please contact: Richard Williams, Vice Chair of the Sanctuary on Sea group at richard@richardmwilliams.eu or 07970 892932.

Closing date for applications: 5pm 2nd May 2016.

Interview date: 6th May 2016
